MECHANISM OF TESTING AND TRAINING

1

Determining the level of English language proficiency using adaptive testing.

2

Marketplace of English language learning services available to Ukrainians.

3

Learning English using the largest educational project in Ukraine "LINGVA.SKILLS".

ADAPTIVE TESTING OF THE LEVEL OF ENGLISH LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY

Adaptive testing is the most modern method of testing, which involves changing the sequence of test tasks in the testing process itself, taking into account the answers of the person to the previous tasks.

Quickly, reliably and accurately determines the level of English language proficiency according to the European standard (A1 – C1).
